

Humphrey Says Kennedy Can't Beat a GOP

By JACK DAVIS

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP)—Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.), declared today that Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.)—if he is the presidential nominee—cannot beat a Republican in November.

He borrowed the same argument Kennedy has been using in stumping the state for Tuesday's West Virginia primary—that West voted by supporting Humphrey, for he can't be nominated.

"If people will look at the voting record, instead of clever advertising propaganda, they will see that it is Kennedy, not I, who can't win for the Democrats in November," Humphrey said in a statement issued as he pumped hands at plant gates in the Charleston area.

Kennedy got an early start in Huntington, greeting workers at a glass plant and nickel mill before breakfast, then hitting more industrial sites.

Humphrey's statement was another example of how bitter the campaigning has become between the two presidential hopefuls in the last hours of the contest.

Tuesday about 350,000 of the state's 670,000 registered Democrats will have much to say about the political future of both.

Fred O. Ellis

Hope Chamber of Commerce President Fred O. Ellis announced that Tuesday, May 24, has been designated Industry Appreciation day and all industries in the Hope area will be honored.

During the afternoon open house will be held at Hope's newest industry, Wire Products Co. at Division and Elm.

The day will be climaxed with a banquet at 7 p. m. in the school cafeteria with Winthrop Rockefeller as guest speaker. Many other distinguished guests will be present. Food will be prepared by Joda's Catering Service.

The Chamber of Commerce is making plans for the best industry appreciation observance ever held here and President Ellis appeals for the full cooperation of everyone.

Court Sets Aside Two Sentences

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court today set aside three year penitentiary sentences imposed on Bruce Kagen and Jimmie Tibbett in the drowning death of Clinton Silvey in an abandoned Scott County mine pit last August.

The unanimous opinion said there was no sufficient evidence to sustain the involuntary manslaughter verdict returned by a Scott Circuit Court jury.

The two defendants, Silvey and Claudine Gilliam met at the DeLuxe Cafe at Fort Smith on Aug. 18, 1959, and drove in Silvey's automobile to the scene of his death.

The survivors said the girl became ill on whiskey and they tried to get Silvey to take all of them back to Fort Smith.

Silvey, the defendants said, tried to attack Kagen with a pair of metal knuckles but Tibbett grabbed him, then Silvey was turned loose he ran a short distance and began throwing rocks. They said they each threw one rock and Silvey ran and jumped into the water-filled pit. He wasn't seen again.

Justice Sam Robinson said for the Supreme Court that the body was found at the bottom of the pit, at least 60 feet from dry land in any direction. Silvey still held the metal knuckles.

There was a superficial wound on the head, which Robinson said could have been made by grasping hooks, but death was due to drowning.

Robinson said that if Kagen and Tibbett had made an attack on Silvey, causing him to jump into the pit in an effort to save his life, they would have been guilty of homicide.

He said there was no indication of this. And he added there was no evidence that the two even threw rocks at Silvey after he jumped into the water.

Innocent Pleas Entered by Sitdowners

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Attorneys for eight Negro students involved in lunch counter protests against segregation entered pleas of innocence when their appeal cases were called for arraignment today.

Pulaski Circuit Judge William J. Kirby set May 31 for trial of the male students at Philander Smith College for Negroes.

The eight had appealed to circuit court from municipal court sentences of fines and jail terms.

Harold Anderson, attorney for the Negroes, and Pulaski Prosecutor J. Frank Holt had requested Kirby to set an early trial date.

Anderson waived a jury trial for his clients.

The students were arrested after sit-in demonstrations at Blass and Pfeiffer department stores here April 13. All were charged with violating a state law which forbids a breach of the peace.

Under this law, Act 226 of 1959, Municipal Judge Quinn Glover sentenced the students on April 21 to 60-day jail terms and $250 fines.

Two of the Negroes — Frank James Lupper, and Thomas B. Robinson, both 20 — also were charged under Act 14 of 1959, which makes it a misdemeanor to refuse to leave a business establishment on request. Lupper and Robinson got additional municipal court sentences of 30 days in jail and fines of $150.

The other six Negroes are Eugene D. Smith, 21; Melvin T. Jackson, 20; William Rogers Jr., 19; and Sammy J. Baker, Winston Jones and McLeod Buchanan, all 18.

Prescott to Get Pajama Factory

PRESCOTT, Ark. (AP)—A $100,000 pajama factory will be located here May 16, the Prescott Industrial Development Commission has announced. It will employ about 100.

The Irving Marx Mfg. Co. of New York will set up the plant's machinery in a building formerly occupied by the Masterfil Mfg. Co. Production of all types of pajamas will begin immediately.

Coronation Planned by Baptist Gas

The Girls' Auxiliary Coronation will be held in the Baptist Church sanctuary on Wednesday, May 11, at 7:30 p. m. under the direction of Mrs. Charles Reynerson. Mrs. Hendrix Spraggins will be at the organ. Mrs. Homer Boyerley and Mrs. John McClanahan will give the charges and crown the queens. Assisting in the service will be the Junior and Intermediate Counselors, Misses Velora Bright, Judy Beth Davis, Sue Ann Smith, Sherrie Hankins, Pat Valentine, Cecilia Godwin, and Pat Burroughs.

The girls who have successfully met requirements and to be recognized for achievements in Forward Steps of GA are as follows: Queens: Mary Alice Caston, Dora Ann King, Joy Davis, Judy Owen, Kathy Thrash, Lynda O'Steen, Sharon Evans, and Annette Hatfield.

Ladies-In-Waiting: Peggy Duke, Brenda Barentine, Beverly Walters, Jane Grigg, Mary Ann Bealy, Pat Rogers, Charlotte Moore, Ellen Turner, and Cynthia Troil.

Bureau Board Meets Tuesday

The Hempstead County Farm Bureau Board of Directors will hold its regular meeting at the Diamond Cafe Tuesday, May 10 at 7:30 p. m. It was announced today by Charles Key, president.

Mr. Key said the board would make plans for sending a delegation to Magnolia on Tuesday night, May 17, to an area Farm Bureau Leaders Conference. Any Farm Bureau member is welcome to attend the meeting.

Teddy Jones Jr.

An outstanding Hope High School senior, Teddy Jones Jr., and last year's delegate to Boys State, has been named a Junior Counselor to Arkansas Boys State, May 28-June 4. It was announced by American Legion Adjutant, Lloyd McDermott.

Teddy is Student Council president, National Honor Society member, Lt.-Gov. of MoArk Key club district, one of the top 16 seniors, member of Mu Alpha Theta and an honor graduate.

Directors in School Case Are Upheld

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court said today that school directors have no legal authority to agree to maintain a school at a certain place indefinitely.

In a unanimous decision, the high court upheld Perry Chancellor Paul X. Williams in permitting the Perryville School District to discontinue a branch school at Cherry Hill.

Irving Brown and other patrons cited an agreement made as part of a 1947 consolidation of the Cherry Hill District into the Perryville District that a one teacher branch would be maintained at Cherry Hill as long as at least 10 students were in average daily attendance there.

Justice Jim Johnson, who wrote the Supreme Court's opinion, said that "ethics is on the side of" Brown and his associates but that the 1947 agreement had no statutory backing and could not be enforced.

In the second appeal of the case, the Supreme Court affirmed Clark Circuit Court judgments of $8,000 for Oma Lee Cox of near Curts Junction and $625 for her father, J. C. Cox Jr., against a neighbor, G. W. Harkrider.

Miss Cox, then 16, was injured in November, 1957, in a traffic collision while riding to Arkadelphia with Harkrider in his truck.

The court held that Harkrider was guilty of the "willful and wanton negligence" necessary for a judgment against a host driver.

Last year previous judgments in favor of Miss Cox and her father had been set aside by the Supreme Court because of a jury instruction it said was erroneous.

The Supreme Court held that Alice Vines of Columbia County waited too long to file a second suit seeking damages of more than $220,000 against Arkansas Power & Light Co. for death of her husband, Leonard Vines.

Vines was accidentally electrocuted on June 10, 1955.

Mrs. Vines filed one suit within the prescribed two-year period, dropped it in 1958 and later, on July 10, 1959, filed a second suit. AP&L said the statutory time for filing had expired, but Mrs. Vines contended she had "saved" her cause of action by filing the second suit within a year from the time she dropped the first.

Both Columbia Circuit Court and the Supreme Court ruled against her.

A Craighead Circuit Court verdict discharging Luther Barnes as a garnishee in a judgment for $21, plus interest and costs which C. C. Coward had obtained against Hal Pfeiffer was upheld. Coward had appealed.

Anah A. Jones, as executrix of the estate of J. Hal Jones, lost her appeal from a Washington Probate Court order allowing a $495 claim of Arkansas Farmers Assn. against the estate.

The Supreme Court reversed a ruling of Crawford Chancellor Court that Wilmer Jones could not maintain a foreclosure suit against land mortgaged by the late Henry Dodd to secure a note for $256.

President May Talk to Nation Before Leaving

WASHINGTON (AP)—The White House indicated today that President Eisenhower might make a television-radio address to the American people before he leaves this weekend for the Paris summit conference.

Asked about this possibility, Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said, "I can't answer that at the present time."

On other occasions, a reply of that kind by Hagerty sometimes has foreshadowed an announcement that Eisenhower was going on the air. It has been the President's custom to make a nationwide broadcast on the eve of trips abroad.

Hagerty also raised some doubt in a meeting with newsmen as to whether Eisenhower would go ahead with a news conference which he has scheduled for Wednesday.

Asked whether Eisenhower still intended to hold the news conference, Hagerty replied he would answer that Tuesday morning. He declined to elaborate when asked whether he was suggesting that plans for the news conference were being canceled.

In reply to other questions, Hagerty said he knew of no plans for Eisenhower to go on the air specifically for discussion of the sensational American spy-plane-over-Russia episode.

Yet obviously any Eisenhower address regarding the summit conference would be in the context of the impact of the plane incident.

The Wednesday news conference—which it appears now may be called off—was scheduled before the plane incident.

Any meeting of Eisenhower with newsmen undoubtedly would bring a barrage of questions about the incident.

Hagerty parried with a barrage of "no comment" replies almost all questions dealing with the shooting down of the plane by the Russians and admission by this country that it was on an espionage mission.

Hagerty did repeat a White House denial of a published report that Eisenhower had ordered a halt to all flights over or near Communist frontiers, pending investigation of the government's intelligence operations.

Thrash Will Talk to Baptist Men

Melvin Thrash, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thrash of Hope, will be guest speaker at the monthly Brotherhood supper meeting for the men of First Baptist Church tonight at 6:30.

Mr. Thrash is a distinguished graduate of Hope High School, received his BA degree from Ochsle College where he served as president of the student body during his senior year. He received his MA degree from the U of A with major in Business Administration.

Mr. Thrash lives in Little Rock and works as business manager for the Arkansas Baptist State Convention, handling over $1,500,000 in funds annually. He will discuss administration and procedures of his office.

City Police Report Three Accidents

Several accidents were investigated by City Police over the weekend.

Sunday on South Main Street an auto driven by Elijah Morris collided with another driven by L. E. Brown. Morris was charged with failure to have a drivers license and with no brakes. The Brown auto was badly damaged. Officers Martin and Sinyard reported.

At 2:30 a. m. Saturday an auto driven by Aubrey Goyne collided with an auto driven by Denver Martin at Second and Hazel. City Officers Moses and Clark charged Goyne with hit and run driving and driving while intoxicated.

On Hazel Street a motor scooter ridden by Ronnie Phillips and a car driven by John C. Barham collided. Young Phillips suffered a bruised leg and facial cuts according to Officers Martin and Sinyard.

Top Advisors Called by Ike to Go Over the Spy Plane Incident

Europe Feels Incident Hurts Summit Talks

By DENNIS NEED

LONDON (AP)—Moscow radio declared today activity by the U.S. military such as sending a spy plane over the Soviet Union threatens to involve the world "in the greatest calamity."

Implying that President Eisenhower could not be held responsible — as did Premier Nikita Khrushchev himself in announcing the plane had been shot—Moscow radio declared:

"The Pentagon is the father of the many war blocs that encompass the main areas of the globe. However, authorization (for the spy plane's flight) was not received from Washington by the U.S. military and the intelligence service."

But Radio Peiping, the voice of Red China, declared that the responsible officials of the United States, headed by Eisenhower, have brought the cold war machine into full operation.

Meanwhile, throughout Western Europe and in the Far East, most newspaper editorial comment agreed on these points:

1. That Khrushchev has scored a propaganda victory of great magnitude just before the summit conference opens in Paris next Monday.

2. That the incident weakens the position of the Western powers in general, and the United States in particular, at the conference.

3. That it reduces the possibility of some progress toward easing international tension, much less of even the most tentative agreements at the summit.

While recognizing that both East and West engage in intelligence activities many observers felt that the United States blundered in its timing.

"The most disturbing feature of the incident is how the Americans came to authorize a flight of this kind on the eve of the summit meeting," said the influential London Times.

"Whatever the reason, there ought now to be a stringent tightening up in the control and coordination of the Central Intelligence Agency's activities."

The conservative Paris newspaper Le Figaro said that "history offers few comparable examples of clumsiness." It said the incident gives Khrushchev "arguments with which he can cover his intransigence if the adventure of the summit conference runs into difficulties."

London's leftist Daily Mirror declared the Powers flight was "sheer insanity." The liberal News Chronicle called it a "crass blunder." The Western leaders will start the summit conference with the knowledge that their "most powerful member has been outwitted with painful ease."

The State Department's explanation of the flight brought mixed reactions.

Kenneth Zilliacus, a longtime member of the British Parliament, said:

Susan Davis, Henderson sophomore, will present a voice recital Monday at 4 p. m. at Arkadelphia. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hinton Davis and will be accompanied on the piano by Fletcher Trotter.

It has been a number of years since a sophomore at Henderson has presented a recital, the performer usually being a junior or senior.

Camelle LaGrossa 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim LaGrossa of North Little Rock, formerly of Hope, is one of two Arkansas Junior Cooks who have flown to state president.

Wants Aid for Storm Area

MORRISTON, Ark. (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus plans to ask that storm damaged areas of Arkansas be declared disaster areas so federal aid will be available.

Aid will be sought for parts of Sebastian, White, Paulkner, Conway and Perry counties. Faubus indicated after a weekend visit to nearby Menifee.

One woman was killed and 24 persons injured in a tornado at Menifee Friday. The twister destroyed 26 homes, a school, the post office and two churches.

Replacement cost of the Conway County Training School was estimated by School Supt. William Keaton at $500,000.

Other tornado and windstorm damage in the state was estimated at two million dollars.

Faubus said his request would not be made until county judges finish compiling damage estimates.

Cites Need for Russian Vigilance

By STANLEY JOHNSON

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda, the Communist party newspaper, today called Francis G. Powers' jet flight over Soviet territory further proof of the necessity for the highest Soviet vigilance against attack.

Though officials gloated over the shooting down of the American spy plane, some citizens seemed disturbed that it managed to get so deep into Soviet territory.

Pravda denounced the U.S. State Department's explanation as impudent and cynical and denied that other nations engaged in aerial espionage.

"It is certainly no secret that given the state of the world today, intelligence collection activities are practiced by all countries, and postwar history certainly reveals that the Soviet Union has not been lagging behind in this field," the U.S. statement said.

New $21,000 X-Ray Now Being Set Up

Installation of a new $21,000 X-ray machine to be used for diagnostic purposes was begun today at the Hempstead County Memorial Hospital. According to Charlie Wilson, hospital administrator, the mechanism is comparable to that used anywhere in the state of Arkansas.

He further revealed that preliminary plans have been completed for the erection of a Senior Citizen wing at the hospital. It will extend from the front wing for 22½ feet south.

To be used by patients, especially senior citizens, who must remain in the hospital for an extended length of time, the approximate cost of the new addition will be $100,000. Construction will begin in August of this year.

Unusual Meet to Discuss New U. S. Strategy

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower arranged an unusual meeting of his top strategy advisers for today amid continuing worldwide clamor over the American spy-plane incident.

The National Security Council, headed by Eisenhower, usually meets on Thursdays.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen that shifting the weekly session to 2:30 p. m., today had "no connection whatever" with the plane episode.

However, it seemed entirely unlikely that the council—the nation's top security planning unit—would meet without some discussion of the shooting down of an American plane and pilot by the Russians.

In a sensational development over the weekend, the United States confessed that the plane was on a spy mission.

Hagerty said the council meeting was moved ahead from Thursday because Eisenhower would be leaving Saturday for Paris to attend the summit conference opening a week from today.

Eisenhower was reported planning to follow up the incident by calling on Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev at the Paris meeting to join in scrapping military secrecy.

That move was understood to stem from a determination not to make a defensive attitude on the matter, warned Eisenhower, meets with the government, chiefs of Britain, France and the Soviet Union.

The President is represented as feeling rather that the sensational incident dramatizes as possibly nothing also could the U. S. view that the Soviet Union's "iron curtain" system of concealment is a major source of tension and fear of war throughout the Free World.

Eisenhower conferred with Secretary of State Christian A. Herter at the White House late Sunday for 75 minutes after he returned from a weekend at Gettysburg. Mr. Herter is just back from Allied conferences in the Middle East, and it was their first meeting in 10 days.

The New York Times said in a Washington dispatch today that it was stated on responsible authority that President Eisenhower has ordered a halt to all flights over or near Communist frontiers pending an executive investigation of the entire intelligence apparatus of the government.

Eisenhower is due to leave Saturday for Paris and the summit conference opening next Monday. In advance of the Big Four session with Khrushchev, he will confer with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of Britain and French President Charles de Gaulle.

Hardin Gets Campaign Started

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Governorial candidate Joe C. Hardin officially today with an attack on the fourth term issue.

Hardin, a planter-businessman, hammered on the argument that Gov. Orval B. Faubus should not seek another two years in office.

"He promised to seek a limitation on service, if elected."

The Hardin campaign was kicked off with informal coffees at several Little Rock homes.

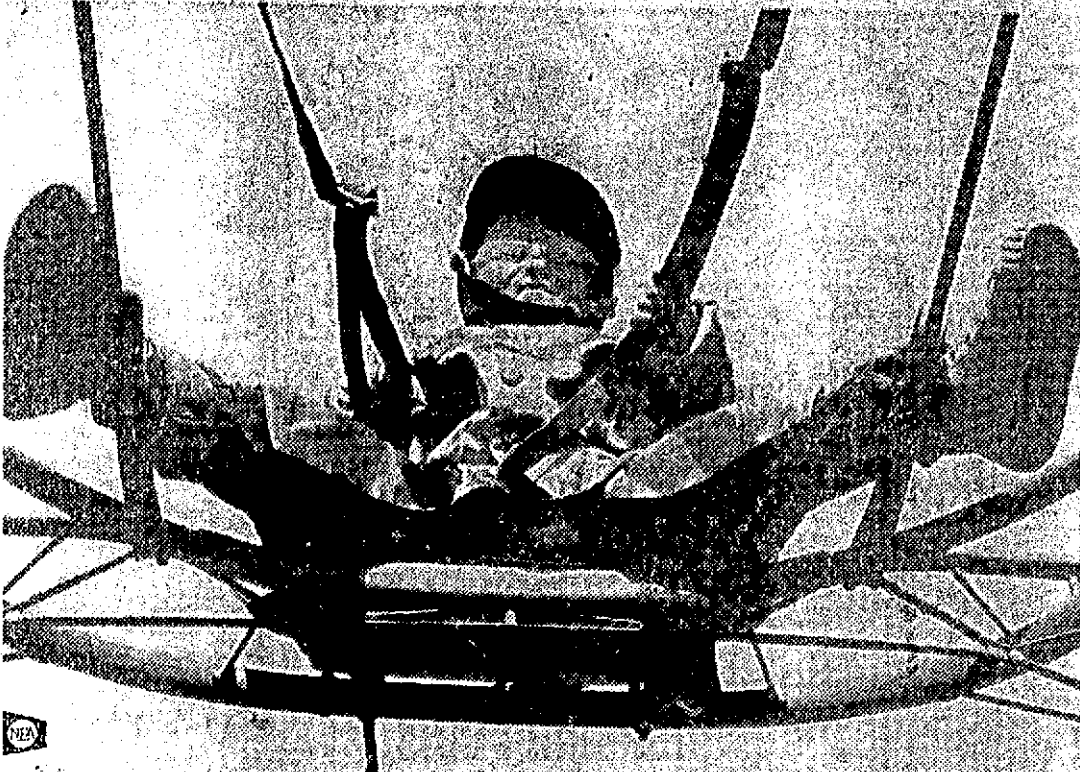

Hardin invited his listeners to check the dictionary on the meaning of the word "demagogue."

"He offered this definition of himself: 'A demagogue is a speaker who makes capital of social discontent.'"

"At one point Hardin, one of five contenders for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, mentioned the Louisiana administration of Gov. Earl Long in his criticism of long tenures in office."

He said, "we don't want that in Arkansas, but there was no elaboration."

Hardin promised that he would try for a better business climate in Arkansas if elected governor. He also said he would seek a better balance between agriculture and industry.

Integration in Georgia Case Heard

ATLANTA (AP) — Arguments are slated to begin today in U. S. District court on when Atlanta public schools must be desegregated.

Attorneys for the Atlanta Board of Education are expected to contend no date should be set until after the Georgia Legislature meets in 1961 and has time to act on a report by the State School Study Committee.

Atty. A. T. Walden, representing parents of several Negro children concerned, says he will ask that desegregation be ordered in the city schools in September.

Judge Frank Hopper already has ordered the schools integrated and has accepted a board of education pupil placement plan providing for grade-by-grade desegregation.

But the judge postponed setting a date for implementation until after the school study group completed its report.

The majority report of the committee recommended freedom of choice under a local option plan. The minority report called for retaining present Georgia laws, which would prevent any system from desegregating.

Legislature Opens in Louisiana

BATON ROUGE (AP) — The Louisiana Legislature opens a 60-day session at noon today with lawmakers and the administration apparently holding back key legislation.

Many lawmakers said they wanted to hold up their own important bills until they see what trend the administration of incoming Gov. Jimmie H. Davis sets.

Most lawmakers felt the controversial 2.3-cent gas severance tax must be renewed to keep the estimated 50-million dollars produced annually for schools.

The teacher forces in the legislature apparently planned to keep quiet their plans to make the full pay raise approved by the 1956 session a reality.

Rep. Tom Jewell, Pointe Coupee Parish, said the House and Senate may take off Tuesday for the inauguration ceremonies, meet briefly Wednesday and quit for the weekend.

Davis will be inaugurated at noon tomorrow—after the legislature has certified that he is elected.

Rhee Quits Politics Completely

SEOUL (AP) — Former President Syngman Rhee announced today he has renounced politics for the rest of his life.

"My own role in Korea will be judged by history and all the facts are in the record," he said in a statement that disclosed President Eisenhower had thanked him in a personal letter for quitting public life.

While the 85-year-old Rhee resigned April 27 under pressure from student-led uprisings, there had been speculation he might seek the presidency in new elections.

Rhee's resignation statement had said he wished to spend the rest of his life as a private citizen. Today's statement went further. It said he was "speaking from my retirement having renounced all political considerations for the rest of my life."

Rhee, at whose original invitation Eisenhower is visiting Seoul next June 22, predicted for the American President "one of history's greatest welcomes," he urged Koreans to "express their respect and admiration for President Eisenhower and the great American nation."

Steve came in before two and Rose, who had been watching for him, took him into the study. She asked, "You remember her, don't you, Karen Jackson?"

"I'm not likely to forget her. What's she doing here?"

She said, "You wouldn't know this; you haven't seen them except here, and when Pete was in the hospital. But she left him quite a while ago. He hadn't—and hasn't—any idea where she was. I had one card and a letter from her. I promised to let him know if I heard, but now I've sworn to her I won't tell him she'd been here, and that you won't either."

Rose took him in and he asked, "Remember me?"

"Of course, Dr. Jennings. It wasn't so long ago."

He listened, looked, thumped, he read some more, asked intermediate questions, went to wash his hands, came out and said, "I'm putting you in the hospital, Mrs. Jackson."

She asked faintly, "Why?"

"I want some tests. And you'll be better off there. Rose is away a day, most days."

"But," she argued and the tears started to crawl down her cheeks,
"I can go back to New York. I shouldn't stay here—"

"I'm not trying to alarm you," Steve said, "but I believe that your doctor you consult in New York would hospitalize you."

"Why not here, where you have friends? And if you want me for your physician, you'll have to do as I say," he smiled. "I'm not being tough," he added gently.
"But I can't be responsible otherwise, nor can Rose. If you won't go to the hospital, it's only fair that I—or Rose—notify your husband."

She was whiter than white.
"But I've left him," she said.
"You aren't divorced?"

"No."

"Then he is still the proper person to notify. Well?"

"All right," she said. "I'll go."
Downstairs, Rose asked,
"Well?"

He shook his head. "I'm not sure." He stopped as they heard Karen coughing. Then he said, "I want to put her through the tests
—cough, sputum."

"Oh, no," said Rose.

"We have to be sure. I'll get her a private room—as a matter of fact one of my patients—you know old Bob Lake, don't you?
is being discharged this afternoon. I'll use your phone now."

"Steve, I don't think she has much money."

"Hospitalization?"

"Pete had when he was there—but that's something else again."

he looked at her and smiled.
"Well," he said, "one more thing for you to worry about. Take it easy."

When she went back upstairs
Karen asked, "What did he say—not that you'd tell me?"

"Just rest, tests, x-rays," says
Rose.

"Did he say I had L.b.?"

"No, Karen."

"But the questions . . . how much did I cough, did I run a temperature—"

"It's routine; you've had pneumonia—"

Karen said dreadingly, "Nowadays it doesn't kill you. They arrest it."

She turned her ravaged face into the pillow. Rose pulled up a slipper chair, took Karen's hand and held it. And then Karen said, "He mustn't find out."

"Pete? If you are really ill, he'll have to know."

"I couldn't stand having him sorry for me," Karen said.

Rose thought, incredulous: She is in love with him. She said nothing, but Karen went on.
"When I went to see Mark, I told him I hadn't been in love with Pete for a long time. I told you that, too."

"Yes."

"The color was bright in Karen's face now. She had a brittle viva-cidity, which overrode her weakness. She said, "Almost everything I've said isn't true." My parents aren't dead. What I was trying to decide when I came here was could I—did I dare—go home."

"But, Pete—?"

"Oh, he knows they're alive," said Karen. "And the old man in Italy. He isn't my godfather, Rose."

"Karen, please, you're just tearing yourself to shreds."

"I met him in Chicago," said Karen. "He was, maybe 60. He had all kinds of money and a wife who wouldn't divorce him.
He did want to marry me, Rose, and he was good to me. My parents said, I needn't ever come home."

"Why did you go to Italy, this time?"

"Louis is old . . . he's alone. I thought maybe I could stay there." She looked up. "You're thinking: Until he died and I might inherit from him?"

Rose said honestly, "Something of the sort, yes."

"It's true enough. I couldn't have married him if he'd asked me. Pete said, no matter what happened he wouldn't give me a divorce—but still I could stay in Italy. She laughed. "Louis hardly knew me. Oh, in a far-off, courtous way like a man in a Rose said, "I'm so sorry. Still you never had much use for me before," said Karen.

"OF COURSE IT'S MODERN —IT'S ELECTRIC!"

... IT'S YOUR BETTER WAY TO COOK!

You won't need a boat and a sea breeze to sail through a cool summer if you cook electrically! Modern electric ranges leave your kitchen as cool as foam-tipped waves. That's because electricity is pure power . . . eliminating old-fashioned methods which throw out heat, better-skillet, into the kitchen. Just the heat needed to cook the world's best meals goes directly into the utensils and food, leaving the cook—and the air in her kitchen—fresh and cool. You'll have a summer vacation from work and worry—all year long—when you start cooking BETTER, electrically.

See the new Electric Ranges, both free-standing and built-in, now on display at your appliance dealer's, during the All-Electric Kitchen Carnival!

Seven Espionage Trials Since War

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Several trials concerning Soviet espionage in the United States have made headlines since World War II.

Julius and Ethel Rosenberg of New York were executed in 1953 for betraying atomic secrets to the Soviets.

Cot. Rudolph W. Abner, convicted in 1957 of conspiring to transmit defense and atomic secrets, was sentenced to 30 years in prison.

Jack Soble, admitted Soviet spy, was sentenced to a 30-year term in 1957.

Mark Zboraski, a Russian-born anthropologist, was sentenced to five years in 1957 after being convicted of perjury. He was a federal grand jury agent in association with Jack Soble.

Morton Sobell, convicted of being a member of the Rosenberg atom-spy ring, was sentenced to 30 years.

History of Columbus HD Club

Given During National HD Week Observance

The Columbus Home Demonstration Club was organized in 1927 with Miss Mary Benchley (now Mrs. Harry Shiver) as Home Agent.

Mrs. J. R. Autrey (deceased) served as first president.

During an all day meeting in the summer of 1927 in the home of Mrs. Autrey, Miss Conant from Extension Service, in Fayetteville gave a bread making demonstration. There were eighteen (18) members present that day.

Most of which are deceased or moved away as we have only (3) three active members now which were on that first group of the original charter members, they are Mrs. C. R. White, Mrs. Robert Caldwell and Mrs. J. O. Johnson.

During the early 30s we were without a home agent, but in Feb. 1934 Miss Helen Griffin (now Mrs. L. D. Springer) re-organized the club. In March of 1934, Miss Griffin and a group of club women met in the Hope City Hall and organized the HD county council. Mrs. C. R. White of Columbus was elected president and served two years.

Miss Mary Fletcher was home agent during 1939-40 when the government sponsored a mattress and comfort program. This was done through the club. Mrs. C. R. White was manager and 196 mattresses and 100 comforts were made in the community.

In 1950 the County Council gave pins for perfect attendance and the Columbus Club had three, they were Mrs. J. C. Hipp, Mrs. J. C. Delaney & Mrs. T. M. McCorkle.

For several years our minor project was to cooperate with the PTA in school improvement, as a result we have a modern lunch room. A new piano, indoor restrooms in two schools and playground equipment.

We have participated in Red Cross, cancer and many other drives and our members are active in church work of their choice.

To all members of HD Clubs the Columbus Club would like to send each of you our friendship. If we were some good fairy, and our wishes would come true, we'd build a never ending road of happiness to you.

Influential Women of America

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Women's Editor

Who are America's most influential women?

You might name a movie star or a woman senator, an educator or an ambassador.

All wrong, says J. Warren Kane, a New York importer of French perfumes. The women who most influence national tastes and customs are the girls behind the counters of American stores.

"If you want to find out what's new, ask the girl behind the counter," says Kane. "She's onto every new fad before it starts. She has her hand constantly on the public pulse."

"Designers dream up new ideas, manufacturers produce them, buyers select them, but it's the girl behind the counter who persuades customers to buy them."

Kane credits American sales girls for much of his success as a French perfume expert, a vocation which flabbergasted his sea-faring father, Capt. John W. Kane, of Blue Hill, Maine.

"I was just out of college when I met a man who asked me if I wanted to go into the perfume business," says Kane. "I took him up on it, and I haven't been sorry. But my father fumed like a spouting whale."

"They started me out to sell perfumes on the road, and it was here that I discovered how important it is to know the girls behind the counters."

Kane also has had a big assist from another influential woman, his wife, Helen, whom he met behind the perfume counter of a store in Kansas City, Mo. She now helps him in his business, and subjects each new scent to the judgment of her highly discriminating nose.

"Of course," says Kane, "it's silly for any woman to try and select her own perfume. The only way to tell what's the best scent for her own chemistry and personality is to try it out on a man. If he gets dreamy-eyed when she wears a certain scent, that's her cue."

J. G. Thomas, Hope; Lonnie Warren, Rt. 3 Hope; Ruby Jewell Williams, Rt. 1 Patmos; Vernice Combie, Hope.

Discharged: Mrs. Malcolm Hinton, Rt. 1 Hope; Mrs. L. A. Sinclair, Hope; Mrs. Joe Butler, Hope; Mrs. James Huff, Hope; Mrs. Robert Levens, Hope; Mrs. Harold Hartness and baby boy, Hope; Mrs. Donald Odum, Rt. 1 Hope; Bert Reese, Hope.

Ruby Jewell and Harmon Williams announce the arrival of a baby boy, born May 8, 1960.

Shoe fashions present a case for contrast for the coming summer. Both contrasting colors and leathers are used in sleek closed pumps and open, airy sandals. Sandal (upper left) in pastel kidskin has the straps reversed in graceful twists of pale and deeper pink. The mock moccasin walking shoe (upper right) is done in white with navy calf gathered into soft folds at the toe. Striped pump with harlequin heels (lower left) is done in black-and-white straw. Heels are done in a smooth silk. A smooth pale gray calf pump (lower right) gets a swathe of navy faille for contrast in color and texture.

DOROTHY DIX

Wife Finds the Evidence

Dear Dorothy Dix

I have had, or thought I did, an ideal marriage for 25 years. Two weeks ago I came across a letter in my husband's pocket implying that he had been going out with another girl for three years. With a little detective work I discovered several other letters and her picture. I was knocked off my feet. I asked him for an explanation. He told me a pack of lies. She still writes and calls him but he offers no explanation. My family is grown. There is no reason to continue this farce. I still get whistled at. I still love but no longer have any faith or trust in him. If we continue, we'll both be miserable. What would you suggest? — Man Hater (?)

Dear Man-Hater (?): I'm glad you added the question mark. You don't hate men. No normal woman really does. Your heart and pride are wounded. That is understandable. But go a step further. Remember, there are many kinds of love — the more selfish, the less compassionate; the less possessive, the more giving. Never forget that as you grow in understanding, you grow in character — especially if you can find it in your heart to forgive. Of course, reach an understanding with your husband. You will reach it sooner if you have forgiveness in your heart.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

My father, 80, is marrying a widow of 57. We, his children, are not invited to the wedding. I do not think we should send a gift, but two are considering doing so. If the other four agree, I shall be forced to do the same. I insist that it would not be proper to send one anyway. Help me! — Mrs. R.R.

Dear Mrs. R.R.: Do you love your father? If you do, send him a wedding gift regardless of what you think of his second marriage. He — not you, is the one most concerned. At 80, he's earned the right to his own life. Not to send him a gift would be a breach of etiquette and lacking in filial devotion.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I am going on 13. Do you think I'm too young for love? I thought so until this boy came along. I never realized I liked him until a few months ago.

My girl friend's boy friend is bringing his brother to meet me soon. I am scared my other boy friend will find out. If he does, he'll break off with me. He comes from a wonderful family and I don't want to lose him. How can I break the date with the other boy without hurting his feelings and explain to the one I've gone to? — Worried

Dear Worried: Romantic love between the very young is possible, but not probable. If you were really in love you wouldn't be dating the other boy. I suggest you read, or ask your mother to read with you, "Sex and the Adolescent" by Maxine Davis.

Send your problem to DOROTHY DIX. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her in care of this newspaper.

Blames Wilt on Head to Mosquitoes

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has a small welt on the side of his head today, he laughingly reported he was bitten by a mosquito while fishing.

Eisenhower had breakfast at the White House this morning with a group of Republican congressmen. When he posed with the group for photographs, newsmen noticed that a patch of the President's hair after a scuffle. Trial is scheduled at the November term of Craighead Circuit Court.

above the left ear was discolored a bit by something which seemed to be medicine.

Rep. Robert Wilson of California explained it to reporters afterward.

He said Eisenhower gave this account:

When he was playing football years ago at West Point he and another youth cracked their skulls together. The accident cut Eisenhower's head above the left ear and quite a scar developed later.

While fishing this morning—apparently in the small pond at his Gettysburg, Pa., farm—the President was bitten by a mosquito in the scar area.

The area apparently has remained sensitive, and Eisenhower reported that the mosquito bite caused a welt.

History of Rocky Mound HD Group

History of Rocky Mound HD Club is given during this National Home Demonstration Week.

A small group of women met at the school house (church now) on a cold, rainy day in January 1933 to organize a Home Demonstration club.

Mrs. L. D. Springer Sr. (Miss Helen Griffin) was the club's first demonstration agent at that time.

Mrs. Bertha Butler (deceased) was our first president.

Miss Melba Bullington succeeded Miss Griffin as home demonstration agent.

Then Miss Mary Claude Fletcher, followed by Miss Cora Lee Westbrook. Then Miss Mary Dixon followed by Mrs. Lorraine (Blackwood) Wylie who was home demonstration agent for several years.

As to date Mrs. Jo Ann Phillips is home demonstration agent.

Some time around 1946 the Rocky Mound Club died down and was reorganized in April 1947 at the home of Mrs. Joanne McCorkle.

Norene Purdie acting as president with Miss Cora Lee Westbrook as home demonstration agent.

The club has been active since it was reorganized.

In 1952 we had an enrollment of 30 members, with Mrs. H. H. Higginson acting as president.

Through these years the club has had the Rocky Mound Missionary Baptist church as our project, which consisted of buying chairs for the pulpit, attendance boards for Sunday School, B. T. S. painted the inside of building twice painted pews also put out shubbery, and a number of things too numerous to mention.

ment, said it was the "the classic excuse of the young lady who pleaded that her illegitimate baby was only a little one. The fact that the President apparently knew nothing of the dispatch of the spy plane makes matters, if anything, worse."

But the Straits Times of Singapore said: "The American government has done the proper thing to keep things in proportion by admitting—or all but—that their aircraft was seeking information." The newspaper said it was Khrushchev's luck that the American plane had been caught "when its becoming clear that Soviet jet bombers are flying regular sorties at high altitudes in Japanese air space."

Khrushchev charged the captured American pilot, Francis G. Powers, look off from Peshawar in Pakistan for a spying flight across the Soviet Union with the intention of landing in Bodo, a northern Norwegian air base.

A Pakistani government spokesman in Karachi said an investigation showed that no such plane as Powers Lockheed U2 had been at Peshawar at the time.

The Norwegian Foreign Ministry said it knew nothing of any plan for Powers to land in Bodo. Turkey, where Powers' jet was based, declared in a statement: "No permission has been given by the Turkish government to any American planes for research flights over Soviet territory or for any other purpose."

ident Charles de Gaulle.

The key question now in the pre-summit speculation of official Washington was how Khrushchev would react to the U. S. admission. The State Department officially acknowledged Saturday that a high-flying American jet aircraft had "probably" made an information-gathering flight over Soviet territory a week ago, but said the trip was not authorized from Washington. Khrushchev said the plane was shot down and the pilot captured alive and well. The formal statement also bluntly reported that for the past four years "planes of the type of unarmed civilian U2 aircraft have made flights along the frontiers of the Free World."

In the context of the entire statement, this meant simply that for four years these planes have been employed along the iron curtain of the Soviet Union to discover as much as possible of what was going on behind the wall of secrecy.

A part of the statement also denounced Soviet secrecy as a source of danger of surprise attack. It was prepared under Herter's direction and cleared with Eisenhower.

Allied officials in Western Europe were described in press dispatches as deeply concerned that the incident had damaged Eisenhower's position in summit negotiations. Some described the President's situation as very embarrassing.

Congressional reaction varied from grave concern to a so-called attitude, but most members were restrained in their comment. Some expressed the view that in the face of a ticklish situation, its best for Congress to keep quiet.

Birth Control Pill Is Approved

WASHINGTON (AP)—For the first time, the Food and Drug Administration has approved a pill as safe for contraceptive or birth control use.

"Approval was based on the question of safety," Associate Commissioner John L. Harvey said today. "We had no choice as to the morality that might be involved."

The pill which has been approved as safe for contraceptive use is called Enovid. It is made by G. D. Searle and Co., Chicago.

Under the clearance granted by FDA it may be used only on doctor's prescription.

The drug has been on the market for several years but the previous clearance specified it was to be recommended only for treatment of female disorders.

John Troan, science writer for the Scripps-Howard Newspapers wrote in an article appearing today that to avoid pregnancy a woman must take one tablet daily for 20 days each month. He added that at a retail price of 54 cents each, a month's supply of Enovid thus costs $10.80.

Giants Clobber Pirates, Take Over 1st Place

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Former bonus baby Mike McCormick, youngest of the Giants, is the new ace of San Francisco's pitching staff.

The 21-year-old unbeaten southpaw Sunday pitched the Giants into undisputed first place with a 13-1 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Pasadena youngster, who now makes his home in San Mateo, Calif., turned the Pirates with six hits for his fourth victory.

The triumph gave the Giants a sweep of the three-game series with Pittsburgh and boosted them to a 10-5 full game lead over the Pirates.

In other National League games, Cincinnati won its seventh straight with a 5-2 decision over the St. Louis Cardinals and Philadelphia defeated Los Angeles 4-2. Rain forced postponement of the Milwaukee-Chicago game.

Rain also wiped out all but the Chicago-New York game in the American League. The White Sox won 4-3 in 10 innings, wrestling first place from the Yankees.

This is only McCormick's fourth full season in the majors. He won 12 and lost 1 last year. In three of his defeats, his teammates failed to get him a run.

Cal McLish won his second game and outfielder Vida Pinson made his first homer of the year in a grand slammer as Cincinnati swept the three-game series with the Cards. St. Louis now has lost all eight of its road games. Larry Jackson lost his fourth against one victory.

Rookie catcher Jim Coker hit a two-run homer to clinch a four-run sixth inning and give the Phillies the rubber of the three-game set with the Dodgers. Jack Meyer, with the help of Dick Farrell, registered his second victory. Ed Rakow was the loser.

Jockey Nearly Blew Chance in the Derby

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Bill Hartack, horse racing's No. 1 controversial figure, almost blew his chance to ride Venetian Way in victory in the 8th Kentucky Derby.

Vic Savinski, who trains Venetian Way for Isaac Blumberg, of Chicago, revealed today that as late as last Friday he was having with the idea of replacing Hartack.

"I knew I could not Eddie Arcaro," said the 32-year-old ex-broker from Kankakee, Ill., as he talked of Venetian's 3½ length triumph over Bally Ache in last Saturday's $150,000 classic for 3-year-olds at Churchill Downs and the renewal of their rivalry in the $100,000 Added Preckness at Pimlico May 21.

"But I finally decided to stick with Hartack although I'll admit that I, together with many others, don't approve of his outspoken attitude. And I am glad I did. He obeyed my instructions to the letter. He'll be up on Venetian Way again in the Preckness."

Hartack asked Savinski after a 7 furlong prep race April 30 in which Bally Ache beat Venetian Way by more than three lengths.

"I told him to give Venetian Way a good workout for an additional quarter-mile," said Savinski. "He did but was standing up in the saddle all the way. When I want a horse to get a tough workout, I want the boy to sit in the saddle and I told Hartack so."

Savinski said his only instruction to Hartack for the derby was to lay back in the third or fourth going down the back stretch and then to make his move.

How well this worked is shown by the results. Venetian Way moved into second place with a little more than a half-mile to go, caught the pace-setting Bally Ache and Bob Ussery rounding the last big turn, went ahead of Leonard Fruchman's hard-hitting colt nearing the quarter-pole and then widened his margin in the long drive for the finish line.

"I rode him like somebody was on my tail all the way," said Hartack.

Although Bally Ache was no match for Venetian Way as he kept intact his record of being in the money in all of his 24 starts except the first, he easily defeated Venetian Park for second money of $25,000.

The victory was worth $114,850 in cash alone and boosted Venetian Way's total bankroll for 15 races to $290,127.

Venetian Way and Bally Ache leave Tuesday for Baltimore and the Preckness at Victoria Park. Tompkins and ninth place Divine Comedy also are expected to start in the second jewel of racing's triple crown.

VENETIAN WAY, 3-year-old colt, won the Kentucky Derby by 3½ lengths over Bally Ache.

Irreverent Thief

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP)—An irreverent thief stole nearly $200 from the Mother's Day collection at a Catholic Church here yesterday.

Church officials said the burglary apparently was committed shortly before the second morning mass. The collection, from an earlier service, was in a safe in the rectory. The burglar jimmied a window to enter the building, then found a key and unlocked the safe.

The Russians Continue to Gloat

By STANLEY JOHNSON

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviets continued to gloat today over the shooting down of an American spy plane, but some average citizens seemed disturbed that it managed to get so deep into Soviet territory.

Premier Nikita Khrushchev announced that the plane, before it was rocketed down, reached Sverdlovsk, some 1,400 miles northwest of the Pakistani border over which it crossed. The average Soviet reacted like Americans would at news a Soviet plane had been intercepted over Kansas.

Anger and uneasiness were heightened by the suspicion that other American high-level planes had penetrated Soviet air space without being intercepted.

In an attempt to reassure the people of the inevitability of the Soviet armed forces, the top military brass blanketed the papers with articles proclaiming the nation's ability to crush any aggressor.

The fact that the plane got deep into the Urals before being shot down boosted America's military reputation, but it had about the same effect on American moral standing on a smaller scale as the Suez invasion had on French and British prestige.

The Soviet press poured out fresh details of the capture of pilot Francis G. Powers and lambasted the United States in cartoons and articles.

The papers told how workers on a state farm near Sverdlovsk came to Powers' aid when he parachuted from his plane on May Day but turned him over to the authorities when they found he carried a pistol with silencer, dagger, Soviet Union map, Soviet and foreign money, gold watches and women's gold rings, a survival kit, fishing net, pliers and a saw-edged knife.

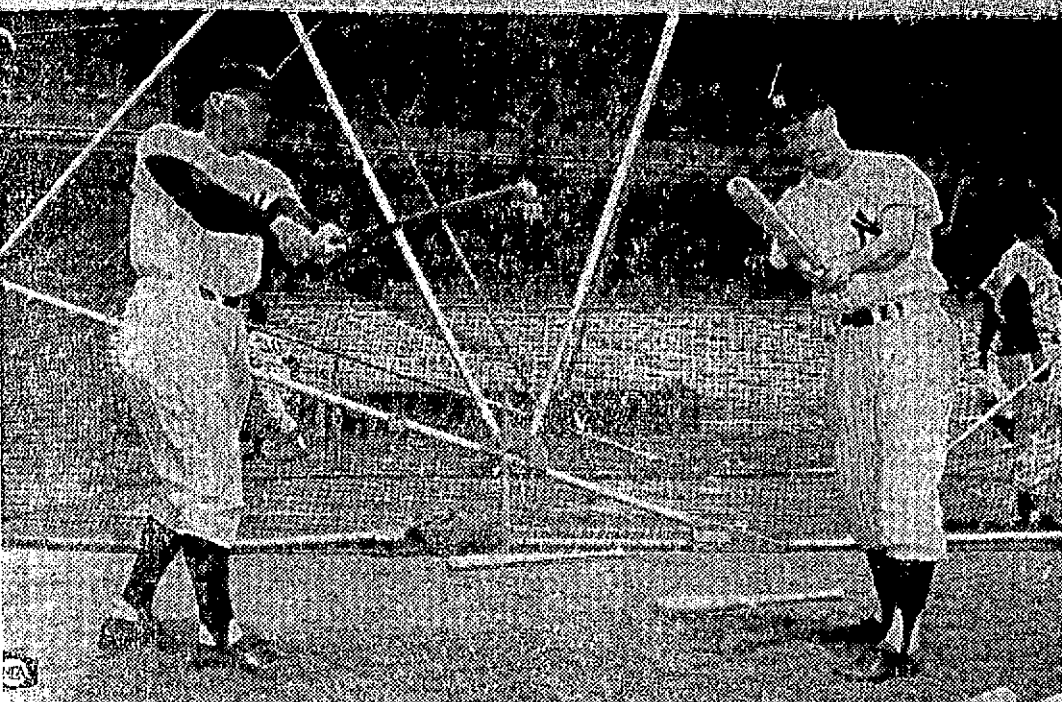

"Our suspicions were more and more confirmed," said Vladimir Surin, a former sergeant. "An enemy was in front of us, an enemy cunning and impudent."

"The parachute jumper was quiet but assured. One could see he was well-schooled. He didn't say a word."

"He pretended he did not understand Russian, but when Farm Director Mikhail N. Berman said 'no smoking here' he immediately pushed an ashtray away. Our suspicions were more and more confirmed."

Khrushchev has indicated that Powers will be tried and said he might hold a news conference on the case. U.S. Embassy officials said so far Ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson had not tried to see Powers.

Powers, a former U.S. Air Force lieutenant from Pound, Va., became an agent of the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency (CIA).

COMING TO GRIPS WITH A BATTING PROBLEM—Coach Bill Dickey, left, checks the swing of Gil McDougald in a practice session. The New York Yankees' third baseman seems to believe that he can do better with his eyes closed than he did the past two campaigns.

Hollywood Kind Place, Actor Says

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Roger Pugmire, a handsome giant from the real West, faced a bright future in the movies. Obviously he needed a new name.

In this era of Rips, Rocks and Tabs, he was offered these choices: Tank Smith, Silver Sloan, Sparks Rebel, Bolt Hill, Bolt Action, Red Rock, Levi Scot, Joshua Tree and Judd Butte.

"The one that killed me was suggested by someone at MGM: Box Canyon," said Roger. "I couldn't stand any of them, so I took my mother's name, Torrey, and shortened it to Torrey."

Just a year out of Pocatello, Idaho, Roger Torrey seems on the road to success. A boyish 22 at 6 feet 5, he told rather wonderingly of the things that happened to him recently.

"They say that Hollywood is supposed to be a tough town," he commented, "but everybody has been nice to me here. I've gotten into wherever I turned."

Roger left home to find out what he wanted to do in life. He knew one thing: He didn't want to enter his parents' motel business. So he came to California to find work.

He tried all kinds, then heard that lowering Jim Arness needed a double for "Gunsmoke."

"I went out to the set and introduced myself," Roger said. "Jim and I hit it off well right from the start, and he took an interest in my well-being. He has been a great help in guiding my career."

And what do real Westerners think of today's TV horse operas? "They like some of them, and so do I," he answered. "I think 'Gunsmoke' has an authentic picture of the West, and 'Rawhide' is one of my favorites, too. It's the No. 1 show in Idaho."

"But some of the others—I don't see why the hero always has to be a law officer. And I don't agree with the way some real-life figures have been played. I've talked to some of the people who would know, and they say that men like Wyatt Earp and Bat Masterson weren't as good as they are portrayed on TV."

When to Fish or Hunt Solunar Tables

By John Alden Knight

The schedule of Solunar periods as printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times, if you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

The Major periods are shown in bold face type. These begin at the time shown and last for an hour and a half or two hours thereafter. The minor periods, shown in regular type, are of somewhat shorter duration.

Has Game All Tuned and Ready

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Pretty Judy Eller of Old Hickory, Tenn., has her golf game all tuned up for the Curtis Cup competition.

The 19-year-old star showed she was ready for the British ladies of New Orleans 6 and 4 Saturday in the finals of the Women's Southern Amateur Golf Championships.

This is the second straight year that the personable daughter of a golfing professional has won the coveted title.

Mrs. Higgins, who was making only her second appearance in the Southern, was the first New Orleans woman to reach the final round since 1934. She got there with upset victories over Polly Riley, a five-time winner of the Southern, and Marge Burns, twice a runnerup in the Southern.

Delegates from all the 50 states are here for a three-day 1960 Democratic Women's Campaign Conference.

In the three days, they should get campaign advice and a look at the candidates.

The only obvious electioneering there was done by the forces of Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri.
